

Media Release
22 November 2009

Faraway Bay wins silver medal for WA's most Unique Accommodation

Western Australia's Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp has won a coveted silver medal at the WA Tourism Awards in the category of Unique Accommodation.

The remote East Kimberley wilderness retreat was awarded the medal at a gala ceremony at Perth's Burswood Entertainment Complex last night.

Owner's Bruce and Robyn Ellison were excited to receive such a prestigious accolade.

"We are thrilled to be rated among the best Unique Accommodation properties in Western Australia – again!" said Mr Ellison.

"The team at Faraway Bay works incredibly hard to ensure our guests enjoy a completely unique wilderness experience, so it's fantastic to see our efforts have paid off," he said.

It's a record fifth time Faraway Bay has been honoured in the state awards for Unique Accommodation. It also collected the award in 2001, 2003, 2007 and 2008.

Faraway Bay won the National Tourism Award for Unique Accommodation in 2004, 2007 and 2008.

Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp Background

Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp is located in the remote East Kimberley region of Western Australia, 280km west of Kununurra overlooking the Timor Sea.

Faraway Bay is a truly unique wilderness retreat, nestled on a rocky hilltop overlooking the Timor Sea, in the remote Kimberley Region.

The area is rich in ancient rock art, there's superb fishing, plenty of birdlife and amazing bushwalks. Just a short boat ride away, is the spectacular twin falls on the King George River.

Open air Eagle Lodge and exclusive cabins with 180 degree views of the wilderness cater for no more than 12 guests at a time, making Faraway Bay a truly unique escape.

www.farawaybay.com.au

Ends

High res images are available by request

Media Contact:

Sue Papadoulis, Bliss Communications

Ph + 61 (0)417 181477

E: sue@blisscommunications.com.au