Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp – the Perfect Gift for Valentines Day

Perched on a cliff top overlooking the Timor Sea is Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp - an intimate escape that feels like the edge of forever.

Surprise your loved one this Valentine's Day with a gift voucher to stay at the acclaimed retreat in the remote East Kimberley region of Western Australia.

Popular with honeymooners, Faraway Bay offers pure comfort to relax the spirit, bush camp simplicity, and a unique and awe-inspiring Australian outback experience.

Faraway Bay owner Robyn Ellison said couples loved to experience one of the most remote wilderness retreats in the world.

"In this stunning natural environment, there is nothing to distract couples from absorbing the extraordinary sights, sounds and magic of the Kimberley – except of course, each other!" she said.

"A Faraway Bay gift voucher is the perfect way to show your love and appreciation this Valentine's Day."

This exclusive retreat caters for no more than 12 guests at a time and is only accessible by helicopter or light aircraft.

Sensitively designed private cabins offer panoramic views of the bay, where crocodiles sun bake while dolphins, sea turtles and dugong frolic.

Take a gourmet picnic to a pristine fresh-water swimming hole, share a bottle of champagne near a cascading waterfall, or while away an afternoon with a good book and your favourite person by the plunge pool.

Prolific native bird life, abundant fishing, and countless ancient rock art sites are just some of Faraway Bay's unique offerings.

With the full moon rising over the bay, and the pure night sky conjuring infinite possibilities, there's no better place to contemplate the magnificence of true love.

Vast untouched wilderness, simple luxury and close encounters with wildlife are the experiences that last a lifetime.

Escape, recuperate and rediscover your passion for life at Faraway Bay – what could be more romantic?

Prices start from $3460 per person for a three day three night package including return scenic charter flight from Kununurra, all meals, drinks and activities.
