Faraway Bay wins state award for WA's most Unique Accommodation

Western Australia's Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp has won a coveted WA Tourism Award, taking out the category of Unique Accommodation.

The remote East Kimberley wilderness retreat won the award at a gala ceremony at Perth's Burswood Casino last night .

Owner's Bruce and Robyn Ellison were excited to receive such a prestigious accolade.

"We are thrilled to be rated the best Unique Accommodation property in Western Australia," said Mr Ellison.

"It is fantastic to know that our hard work and dedication to providing guests with the ultimate wilderness experience has paid off," he said.

It's the fourth time Faraway Bay has won the state title for Unique Accommodation. It also collected the award in 2001, 2003, and 2007.

Faraway Bay will now compete in the National Awards in the same category.

After winning the national award last year and in 2004, Mr Ellison was hopeful about their chances.

"It would be a huge coup to win back to back national awards, but the competition is always so fierce," said Mr Ellison.

Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp Background

Faraway Bay, The Bush Camp is located in the remote East Kimberley region of Western Australia, 280km west of Kununurra overlooking the Timor Sea.

Faraway Bay is a truly unique wilderness retreat, nestled on a rocky hilltop overlooking the Timor Sea, in the remote Kimberley Region.

The area is rich in ancient rock art, there's superb fishing, plenty of birdlife and amazing bushwalks. Just a short boat ride away, is the spectacular twin falls on the King George River.

Open air Eagle Lodge and exclusive cabins with 180 degree views of the wilderness cater for no more than 12 guests at a time, making Faraway Bay a truly unique escape.
